04) McDonald's to ditch plastic straws

McDonald's will replace plastic straws with paper ones in all its UK and Ireland restaurants, starting from September. It is the latest company to opt out of some single-use plastic products which can take hundreds of years to decompose if not recycled. The restaurant chain uses 1.8 million straws a day in the UK. "Reflecting the broader public debate, our customers told us they wanted to see a move on straws," the firm said. This decision follows a successful trial in selected restaurants earlier this year. The move to paper straws will be completed next year.

"I was a young girl in the 1960s. My friends and I used to do a lot of things which shocked our parents. We used to do things our mothers never did. We cut our own hair, we wore short skirts and went dancing. We danced to the music of Elvis Presley and The Beatles. We also got the chance to see The Beatles live at a concert once. It was amazing. My mother baked cherry pies once a week. She always wished that I would cook with her, but I didn't like cooking. Instead, my friends and I went bowling every week. We were very happy!"
